All interested are invited to attend.

The Ladies' Co-operative Improvement Society of Silver Spring, Md., met recently at the home of Mrs. C. H. Warren, Mrs. W. B. Newman presiding. In place of the usual fifteen-minute talk on parliamentary law Miss Alice E. Harwood read a paper on "Property Rights of Women."

After the transaction of the usual routine business the meeting adjourned.

Miss Barbour gave several selections on the violin, Beethoven's Minuet in G" (op. 2), Dvorak's "Humoresque" and Mendelssohn's "Spring Song."

Supper was served by the hostess

L C. L S. SILVER SPRING.

local headquarters that Secretary Dantels has denated the cup which is to he presented to the Boy Scout making and friends of the scouts. Tomorrow night the troop will meet and discuss plans for the coming exhibition." be presented to the Boy Scout making staged on the Monument Grounds April 29. Inspectors of the police department are to be the judges.

Studying Advanced First Aid.

Scout Edward Chapin is the first out to take advantage of the offer of Dr. W. P. Carr of Emergency Hospito instruct scouts in advanced first verk. Only scouts who have reword a merit hadee for first aid are

Scoutmasters to Meet.

A meeting of the Scoutmasters' Club has been called for 8 o'cock tomorrow night in the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night at 7:30 is to practice at the Naval Battalion armory.

News From the Troops.

Communications have been received from troop scribes as follows:

called to order by Scoutmaster France at 7.20. Expenses of the past few nd that the funds are low. Mr. Mettleton of Philadelphia talked to us for bout fifteen minutes, suggesting a way

"At the regular meeting of the troop Friday two new scouts passed the tenfriday two new scouts passed the tenderfoot test namely E Norton and F derfoot test, namely, E. Norton and F. Nimmo. The scoutmaster appointed R. Wright and F. Horseman patrol leaders of the Wood Pigeon and Eagle patrols, also B. McGinness secretary and G. Jacobs scout scribe. Flag drills, lessons in signaling and general exercise were given by the scoutmaster, and the grand finale of the gvening was a conin signaling and general exercise were given by the scoutmaster, and the grand finale of the gvening was a concerted attack on refreshments. On the following Sunday the scoutmaster took the troop on its first hike since reorganization, covering about fourteen miles, with trail and sign practice, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all."

with an attendance pin for having at tended every meeting for a year. Patrol Leader Tarkington received a proficiency dadge for music.

Cant. Pyles and Lieut. Clark surprised the troop by having the flag which Mrs. Lowe gave them a short time ago mountable and complete the test next month."

Troop 30.

"George Davis of Troop 23 was our Fleet last week. He was accompanied."

with an attendance pin for having at tended every meeting for a year. Patrol Leader Tarkington received a proficiency badge for music.

Cant. Pyles and Lieut. Clark surprised the troop by having the flag which Mrs. Lowe gave them a short time ago mountable dwith a brass cagle at the top and presented by Rev. David Covell. Mrs. Callbreath and Miss Alma Barker, with many other friends, were visitors. At the required the guests the troop gave the flag drill, after which light refreshments were served.

The cadets of Business High School are preparing for target practice, which light refreshments will begin in a couple of weeks. Five others were in the party. This guest last week. He was accompanied Troop 11, Daisy-Mrs. Norman Shaw passed their tenderfoot tests and also took the scout oath. After the meeting we had a very fine base ball at the home of the captain.

Troop 17.

ing, on account of the Church and Troop 16-Miss Ruth Brown, Caparked present we walked down to the ellipse, where we took our running test. Our scoutmaster said every-loav did it well, making it in about three and one-half minutes. Scout meeting will be as usual at 7 p.m.

Troop 25.

troop had two visitors from Troop 33, Edward Chapin and Hugh Johnson, Troop 18-Mrs. J. B. Kelly, Captain.

to take their tenderfoot examinations attended the festivities. Many Iriends of the girls were present.

Troop 42.

Troop 42 took a hike last Sunday through Rock Creek Park. Mr. Borden of the National Radio School was there with a fine portable wireless set. An aerial was made with a couple of branches and some wire and the set.

Troop 42 took a hike last Sunday through Rock Creek Park. Mr. Borden of the National Radio School was there with a fine portable wireless set. An aerial was made with a couple of branches and some wire and the set. of the National Radio School was there with a fine portable wireless set. An aerisl was made with a couple of branches and some wire and the set was ready for use after the aerial had been fastened in a large oak. After receiving a message or two the set was packed up and the hike home was packed up and the hike home was started. The patrol leader and two other scouts went to make a trail for the rest of us to follow. We lost the trail at times, but found it again, and finally found the leaders at Klingle Road bridge, and then proceeded home. As several of the scouts have wireless sets the troop has formed a radio club. In the Easter holidays the troop is planning to take an all-night hike. In the Easter holidays the troop is planning to take an all-night hike. The newly organized troop of the banquet, an annual function. Fordyce which will be lengthened into two o three nights by some. The troop is organizing a base ball team, and an exhibition to be held before the parents and friends of the scouts. Tomorrow

Troop 1. Sunflower Troop-Mrs. G. S. Rafter, Captain.

Girl Scout Notes.

At the Wednesday meeting, which was held at the home of the Visiting Nurses, twenty girls were present. After Miss Fox gave a most interestchapin was en duty at the hospital ing lesson on "The Care of the Baby." during the past week, and next week a short business meeting was held. The Kenneth Lavingstone is to succeed hike planned and anticipated with so

A feature of the evening was the beautiful music furnished by the "Muteered their services to the Girl Scouts badges: Rita Eastburn, second class; Elizabeth Rice, Hazel Smith, Margaret Caffee and Hope Nichols, tenderfoot.

Mrs. Colman presented the following proficiency badges: Rita Eastburn and Isabelie Cote, laundress; Katherine Davis, music, and Helen Daly, Helen Davis, music, and Helen Daly, Helen Gleason and Thurza Suter, naturalist.

After the reception a short comedy sketch, entitled "No Men Wanted," was given by Gertrude Coon, Melba Jones and Eugle Corps, which was started a few months ago, is rapidly increasing in both size and quality of music."

Troop 46.

"Last Saturday six of the boys went to Chain bridge to practice signaling, but it was so foggy we could not see the flags. Wednesday night the boys took a hike up the river and had lots of fun."

Troop 15.

Caffee and Hope Nichols, tenderfoot. Mrs. Colman presented the following proficiency badges; Rita Eastburn and Isabelie Cote, laundress; Katherine Davis, music, and Helen Daly, Helen Gleason and Thurza Suter, naturalist.

After the reception a short comedy sketch, entitled "No Men Wanted." was given by Gertrude Coon, Melba Jones and Educide Helen Daly, Helen Gleason and Thurza Suter, naturalist.

After the reception a short comedy sketch entitled "No Men Wanted." was given by Gertrude Coon, Melba Jones and Helen Daly, Helen Gleason and Thurza Suter, naturalist.

After the reception a short comedy sketch entitled "No Men Wanted." was given by Gertrude Coon, Melba Jones staken in the reception in the reception in the reception in a short comedy sketch, entitled "No Men Wanted." was given by Gertrude Coon, Melba Jones staken in the reception in the secretary who was elected for a second term with little pins, and a moving picture be and Thursday. The property of the second for moving picture being the property of the second for moving picture being the property of the Caffee and Hope Nichols, tenderfoot.

Mrs. Colman presented the following Haden made a

Troop 7, Forget-Me-Not-Mrs. J.

After the regular meeting Friday, March 24, they had the tenderfoot ceremony. Miss Cora Neal presented twenty-eigh girls with their tenderfoot pins. Laura ever to Baltimore and back in one day. with an attendance pin for having at-Merrill, leader of Patrol 3, was presented

Jones, Captain.

A meeting was held last Friday night game. We have formed a ball team the girls are working for their proficiency sand expect to play very soon. Last Saturday Irving Malonev invited the troop to the Leader Theater."

the girls are working for their proficiency badges in cooking, Mrs. Jones asked many questions and explained much concernquestions and explained much concerning this part of the work. It was decided Troop 17.

"We did not hold a very long meeting, on account of the church having will soop be needed."

that the troop give a benefit at Poli's soon, the exact date to be decided later, to raise the money for new suits which

tain.

Initiation was discussed, but no decision was reached, at the last meeting of Troop 16. A motion was made and carried that a girl asked to him the resentation of presented April 14 and 15. Initiation was discussed, but no decision Scout a girl asked to join the troop must be introduced to all of the members before Troop 25.

Troop 25 held its meeting as usual at the Whitney Avenue Church. The troop had two visitors from Troop 33, week.

visitors and scoutmaster. Next Saturday we are going to do some work on our shack and have some outdoor fun. Everybody in the troop is bringing an old chair to the shack, which we are going to repair and refinish so that soon we will have good seats for all. Any old furniture will be gladly received by the troop and fixed up for our shack. One new member was elected to the troop.

Troop 36.

Finday night the troop held its meeting, as usual. Four new boys expect to take their tenderfoot examinations next Friday. As soon as the weather permits the base ball team will begin and refreshments were permits the base ball team will begin to the troop of the tenderfoot tests. The manager of the bigger girls are rehears. The manager of the selected at the bigger girls are rehears. The manager of the selected at the bigger girls are rehears. The manager of the selected at the bigger girls are rehears. The manager of the selected at the bigger girls are rehears. The manager of the selected at the bigger girls are rehears. The manager of the selected at the bigger girls are rehears. The manager of the selected at the bigger girls are rehears. The manager of the selected at the bigger girls are rehears. The manager of the selected at the selected treasurer of the troop at the remaining at the house was appropriately decorated with large American flags. Practically the whole troop with its captain, Mrs. Arnold, and the its captain, Mrs. William B. Bayles, attended the festivities. Many friends of the bigger girls are rehears. Mrs. Burlmeast, April lege was hostess to Chi Omega Sorority at the howe on Lamont street. R. J. Beck has been elected treasurer of the troop of the Pre-Medical class. The seniors of the College of Pharmacy recently visited the factory of sharpe & Dohm in Baltimore. The trip was arranged by Dr. Samuel S. Hilton, secretary of the board of trustees of the college.

B. B. Bolton of the bigger was hostess to Chi Omega Sorority a Jefferson Bradley School held its second meeting March 24 in the kinder- Hulbear received their tenderfoot exgarten room of the Jefferson School. Miss M. J. Jarboe is its captain and Miss Bitzhugh its assistant captain.

It was decided that the girls would earn their uniforms by selling boxes of burnt almond chocolates, which their captain was appointed to buy. Saturday, April 1, the girls toured some of the public buildings. Another girl was admitted, making in all eighteen enrolled as probationers. Two were absent, one because of death in the family, and the other will give her excuse this week.

successfully passed. After a short meeting it was decided to take a like to the mouth of the Eastern branch. They paced half way back and walked the rest of the way. When they got back they bade their captain good-bye. She has gone to Panama for a month. They will now have Miss Harlow and Miss Blair for leaders.

Troop 10—Mrs. F. P. Wilcox, Captain. Miss M. J. Jarboe is its captain and amination, and found that they had successfully passed. After a short

Troop 4, Red Rose, Noel House-Miss Treat. Captain.

Troop 10 learned to put on bandage: at its last meeting, when they also Girl Scours of Troop 4 met at Noel planning to spend a week in the country camping during vacation.

After Miss Fox gave a most interesting lesson on "The Care of the Baby."

a short business meeting was held. This prince in the planned and anticipated with so much pleasure was abandoned because of the weather. The next meeting will be at the home of the Visiting Nurses, and will be the last one before the troop takes its examination on this course of instruction.

Troop 6. Pansy, Petworth—Mrs. S.

A. Mooers, Captain.

Troop 6 of Petworth celebrated its second anniversary Friday, March 24, at the residence of the captain.

A feature of the evening was the beautiful music furnished by the "Museum in the Page and the School of Washington are being carbinate planned and anticipated with so much pleasure was abandoned because fried on regularly at Western High schools of Washington are being carbinated and anticipated with so much pleasure was abandoned because fried on regularly at Western High schools of the western is to furnish the "queen" in the page and to furnish the "queen" in the page and to one performance, and the servants of the lord chamberlain, besides the scene from "Midsummer Night's Dream." It was first planned that Western should present two scenes, but on account of time limitations only one will be staged. Miss Merrill of the Western Area the residence of the captain.

A feature of the evening was the beautiful music furnished by the "Museum provided in the Schools of Washington are being carbinated and anticipated with so must be given this spring by the schools of Washington are being carbinated and anticipated with so must be geant for one persentatives. Pittman and Beekham; Representatives. Among the speakers were Senators Key. Pittman and Beekham; Representatives. Called were welcomed into the order. Among the speakers were Senators Key. Pittman and Beekham; Representatives. Called were welcomed into the order. Among the speakers were Senators Key. Pittman and Beekham; Representatives. Called were welcomed into the order. Among the speakers were Senators Key. Pittman and Beekham; Represent

Miss Ellen Fitz Pendleton, president of Wellesley College, gave a fifteen-minute talk to the girls of Western Monday. She spoke on "College Life."

Tuesday Dr. Abram Simon delivered an address on "Ethics," the fifth of a series before the senior class of Western upon this subject.

The members of Western basket The memoers of Western basset ball team, champions of the city, were given a dance by the girls of the school March 24 at the Dupont garage hall. The dance was in charge of Miss Adelaide Pierce. Miss Alice Wood of the feather was charges.

The Brent School Mothers' Club gave a moving picture benefit Wednesday and Thursday. The proceeds are to be used to purchase a victrola for the Brent School.

A new parent-teacher association was large gathering of parents met at the From the Rochester Post-Express. school building and organized the Bradley School Parent-Teacher Association. Miss Van Horn, principal of the school, welcomed the visitors. C. C. Guilford was chosen temporary chairman. Officers elected were Mrs. Fannie Fairchild Abbot, president; C. C. Guilford vice president and Mrs. . Guilford, vice president, and Mrs. Sipos, secretary-treasurer. Earnest H. Daniels, vice president of the board of education, voiced hearty approval of parent-teacher organiza-The date of the next meeting was se: for April 4.

Miss Ella Pendleton, president of Wellesley College, spoke to the girls of the Central High School on college life Monday.

Rehearsals for "As You Like It." which will be given by pupils of Business High School April 5, 6 and 7, are progressing most favorably, it is reported. There will be a special issue of the Ledger, the school publication issued every two weeks, to commemorate the production of "As You Like It." The number will be illustrated with cuts showing scenes from the play and the principals.

week.

Troop lad two visitors from Troop 33. Edward Chapin and Hugh Johnson, who gave us many good suggestions on troop work. Burton Lucks was appointed troop carrier by the scout-master. The troop got many good suggestions from the Scout Bulletin, which was read by the scoutmaster. After the meeting the troop drilled. The hike of Saturday last was a great success.

Troop 21.

"Last Friday we held a meeting at our shack in the woods, and after practicing bandage and signaling we decided to meet there again Saturday at 2 o'clock. We spent the afternoon cleaning up around the shack, after which we played scout games. Scouts Ferry Huff and Graham Little were appointed cooks to get supper. Just before supper five of the fathers visited us and took scats around our big campire and joined us in eating up the good things our cocks had prepared. After supper we held a regular visitors and scoutmaster. Next Saturday we are going to do some work a curl stake and have some outdoor fun. Everybody in the troop is bringing an old chart to the shack and have some outdoor fun. Everybody in the troop is bringing an old chart to the shack and have some outdoor fun. Everybody in the troop is bringing an old chart to the shack and have some outdoor fun. Everybody in the troop is bringing an old chart to the shack and have some outdoor fun. Everybody in the troop is bringing an old chart to the shack and have some outdoor fun. Everybody in the troop is bringing an old chart to the shack and have some outdoor fun. Everybody in the troop is bringing an old chart to the shack and have some outdoor fun. Everybody in the troop is bringing an old chart to the shack and have some outdoor fun. Everybody in the troop is bringing an old chart to the shack and have some outdoor fun. Everybody in the troop is bringing an old chart to the shack and have some outdoor fun.

ntertainment. Fifteen of the largest national fra-Fifteen of the largest national fra-ternities in the country have instruct-ed their delegates to the National In-terfraternity Conference to vote for a regulation whereby persons belonging to prenaratory school fraternities will be the deform the national organiza-tions. It is pointed out that most of the preparatory school fraternities are scarcely more than clubs.

The Rho Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon recently held its founders' day banquet, an annual function. Fordyce # meeting time. Annie Kyle and Blanche

D. C. D. A. R.

Mrs. Frank Foster Greenawalt, state regent, D. C. Daughters of the American Revolution, has called for Thursday 10 a. m., at Continental Hall, the most important meeting of the year to the District D. A. R. Chapter and committee reports will be received, election of state officers will take place, and other important business will be transacted. The president general, Mrs. William Cumming Story, will address the meeting and Mrs. Greenawalt will preside. The election of state officers will be held at 4 p.m. All District Daughbe held at 4 p.m. All District Daugh- chapter.

derson, Allen, Voorhees and Edith Authan.

Gamma Eta Chapter of Delta Tau Delta has piedged Benjamin Mosby Mc-Kelway of Columbian College.

The Delts recently gave a house dance. Mrs. Mann, wife of the minority leader of the House of Representatives, was the chapteron.

Itives, was the chapteron.

Privates William W. Nairn and Ira D. Lucal have been added to the roster of the Coast Artillery Company will make its second trip to Fort Washings to no today for gun and plotting drill. The amount of infantry work necessary for a coast artillery company has been about covered, and the majority of the club and the public. The program been about covered, and the majority of the club and the public. The program will be a paper given by Mrs. Frank G. Wilkins, a member of the club, on the club, on the club, on the club, on the club, and the majority of the time will be given over now to arfaculty was chaperon.

* * *

Clara Conrad, '16 (February class):
George Nordlinger, '15, and Katherine Drain, '12, are to assist in the staging of Western's spring play.

The Dramatic Association, dissatisfied with the policy of the present organization, are preparing to secede and form a dramatic club similar to the Calcium Club, formerly in existence at the university, it is said.

The Dramatic Association will present 'Carana and promises to give suggestions that the practical for every woman who congs—great nations, religions, parties, fortunes—have begun treelike, so quietly that few foresaw their final greatness.

Out at the San Francisco exposition recently a handful of illumined minds met together to establish a registry for human thoroughbreds. The plan measure up most nearly to eugenic standards and register them as the founders of a glorified race. By selective mating for six generations their posterity is expected to have eliminated all taints and traces of degeneracy and disease, and with them the strain of golden-age thoroughbreds will begin.

When this improved order of humanity is fairly established, a century and a half from now, of how little consequence in comparison will be the D. A. R.'s, the Colonal Dames, the sordinary great assections of the cordinary great assections, the conditions assections of the cordinary great assections will be the D. A. R.'s, the Colonal Dames, the cordinary great assections as a short drive tions their posterity is expected to have this improved order of humanity is fairly established, a century and a half from now, of how little consequence in comparison will be the D. A. R.'s the Colonal Dames, the cordinary great assections are counted for the chapter has a district milestone that the chapter has account of the historian, gave an account of the list of an account of the historian, gave an account of the district milestone that the chapter has accounted the historian, gave an account of the district milestone that the chapter has accounted the sistence of the paper by Mrs. C. Es. Nagle and ferstored that the chapter has accounted the district milestone that the chapter has account of the district milestone that the chapter has account of the district milestone that the chapter has accounted the historian, gave an account of the district milestone that the chapter has accounted the district miles

ANTHONY LEAGUE.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY F. W. C

Eckington Union, W. C. T. U., met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Howard Clements. Several reports were submitted by local superintendents, showing progress along their lines of work. Three District superintendents were present. Mrs. Tyndall spoke on the Influence of the press and the advancement that the cause is receiving by various newspapers and periodicals refusing to accept liquor advertisements. Mrs. Williams, District parliamentarian, gave a short drill. Musical selections were rendered by Miss Theodora and Master Daniel Cooper.

Mrs. E. V. Carr. Mrs. Court F. gave readings. The society u mously indorsed the work of the G Cleveland Forum and the Johnson list bill.

MOUNT PLEASANT W. C. T. U. Wednesday afternoon, under the pices of the Mount Pleasant W. C. a silver tea was given in the mond Wilson Normal School. James A. Edgar, president of the tintroduced Mrs. William R. Lone, perintendent, department of mo clubs, who had arranged the pro assisted by Mrs. L. D. Clark, Mrs dora Haden, Mrs. H. V. Easterlin

The March meeting of the Washing-ton Readers' Club was held at the Com-stock Studio Tuesday evening. "How Shall a Reader Determine His Limita-ANTHONY LEAGUE.

At the Anthony League's at home Tuesday Mrs. William Miller gave a talk on the "Migration of Birds." Thursday evening Prof. Macon Coleman gave the third in his course on the 'Hodels of Eastern and Western Education." Mrs. Miller will speak Tuesday on the debt the community owes to its young people. Thursday it is problem of the delinquent girl. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Laura F. Olney, chairman of the Juvenile Court committee. A business meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. and members are requested to be present promptly. Election of delegates to annual District of Columbia federation convention will be held. All meetings of the league are held at 2007 Columbia road. The public is invited.

PETWORTH WOMEN'S CLUB.

The March meeting of the Washing fon Reeders' Club was held at the Comstock Studio Tuesday evening. "How Shall a Reader Determine His Limitations" was the subject of the club's president, Miss Maude E. Lee, and a debate on the subject thereby precipitated. Mrs. Emma Anderson, Mrs. Veilet Pearson and D.: Clifton Clarke were the readers chosen for the evening and varied selection. Mrs. Glenna Smith Tinnin acted as critic. Chief ameng the committee reports received was that of the Shakespeare banquet committee, which is planning was an ovation to be held at the University Club Wednesday, April 26. A feature of the club's annual celebration of Shakespeare's birthday. The banquet is to be held at the University Club Wednesday, April 26. A feature of the club's annual celebration of Miss Lucy Feagin, for many years a prominent worker in the Readers' Club. Miss Feagin for the past year has been doing work on the platform in New York. At the unanimous request of the club she favored them with a rendition of Mark Twain's "Buck Fanshaw's Funcari."

Literature" was the subject of a paper by J. W. Davis. Other speakers on the same topic included James G. Kent, Mrs. Laura B. Lawson, W. G. Hunter, Mrs. C. H. Gordon, Mrs. Mary Hicks, A. H. Frear, Miss Anna McLaren Smith and Mrs. Amelia C. Kent. A musical program was contributed by Miss Marltra Garner, Miss Thelma Crump, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Frear, John Garner and the Congress of the Woman's Education of the Woman's Edu tra Garner, Miss Thelma Crump, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Frear, John Garner and Mrs. E. V. Carr. Mrs. Court F. Wood gave readings. The society unanimously indorsed the work of the Grover Cleveland Forum and the Johnson-Hol-

Wednesday afternoon, under the auspices of the Mount Pleasant W. C. T. U. traces of degeneracy and glassate, and of the control of Territory and periodical per a preparation for target periodic, which is will begin in a couple of weeks.

Purils of Besteve the Control of Territory and periodical periodic period a silver tea was given in the J. Or mond Wilson Normal School. Mr.

At the last meeting of the Junton League the following officers were elected: President, Leo Kershenbaum; vice president, Anna Sherr; treasurer, David Rosenfeld; recording secretary.

JUNIOR LEAGUE.

David Rosenfeld; recording secretary, Sarah Becker; financial secretary, Leo Feldman; assistant secretary, Lillian Wolf. The following were admitted as members: Misses Blanche Kritt, Fanny Bondareff and Elizabeth Lerner, and Messrs. Paul C. Lewis, Sam Lewis and Louis Brooks.

The next meeting will be held at Flynn's Hall, Thursday. The installation of officers will take place and a prominent speaker has been obtained for the occasion. A literary program will be presented. Some of the numbers are a plane solo by Miss Sarah Becker, a vocal solo by Miss Berman, a violin solo by Mr. Cooperstein, and recitation's by Hymen Goldstein and Morris Collegeman. In addition, refreshments will be served and an orchestra will provide music for dancing.

YOUNG WILLING HELPERS.

The Young Willing Helpers Club met Sunday at its clubrooms. Reports from the different committees were heard, Mr. Garfinkle presided. Misses E. Os-

The inside and outside committees are arranging for an outing within the near future. All the members particl-pated in a hike through Rock Creek Park, taking pictures of some of the Park, taking pictures of some of the beautiful scenes and all had a jolly make its second trip to Fort Westernstein today for gun and plotting drill, the chile, held less monits. At 1120 the chile, held less the monits of the control of the war relief committee, was the chile with the chile held less the control of the P. Wilcox, Mrs. W. O. Woods and Mrs. J. C. Weedon.

The committee on social and industrial conditions of the Woman's Fedtrial conditions of the Woman's Federation met Tuesday evening at the home of the vice chairman, Dr. D. R. Wheeler, 813 12th street. After a short business meeting A. S. Trundle gave a talk on "What We Are Eating and Drinking in the District of Columbia." At the conclusion of Mr. Trundle's address a collection of photographs taken by himself, showing insanitary condi-tions in and around the city, were distributed, and questions were asked and answered until adjournment, when a unanimious vote of thanks was tender-ed the speaker. The April meeting of

EXCELSIOR LITERARY CLUB. The Excelsior Literary Club was entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Emma A. Hawkes and Mrs. Blanche Tyler Beaton at the home of the former, 611 G street southwest. Mrs. D. L. Norris presided and the paper of the afternoon, "Samoa," was read by Miss Emily Lee Ragan. Mrs. Beaton gave a short talk, followed by another by Mrs. Chipman. Refreshments were served. LINCOLN CIRCLE. Lincoln Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R. held its current meeting at the home of Past President Mrs. J. Harvey Street. Miss Blaine was initiated and by special request, Mrs. Mida Peabody gave ar account of her travels abroad. Refreshments were served by the hostess. CULTUS CLUB. The regular meeting of the Washington Cultus Club met Tuesday at the home of the president, Mrs. Paris Brengle, 2710 Ontario road. Luncheon was served, after which the meeting was called to order by the president. The first paper, entitled "Manufactures and Other Industries," was read by Mrs. W. K. Deper; the second, on "Islam's New University," was presented by Miss Julia A. Karr. The conversation, led by Mrs. W. K. Cooper, was on the manners and customs of modern Egypt. Fifteen members were present, and Mrs. Meade was the only guest. P. G. COUNTY CHAPTER, D. A. R. The conversation, led by Mrs. W. K. Cooper, was on the manners and customs of modern Egypt. Fifteen members were present, and Mrs. Meade was the only guest. P. G. COUNTY CHAPTER, D. A. R. The conversation, led by Mrs. W. K. Cooper, was on the manners and customs of modern Egypt. Fifteen members were present, and Mrs. Meade was the only guest. P. G. COUNTY CHAPTER, D. A. R. The conversation, led by Mrs. W. K. Cooper, was on the manners and customs of modern Egypt. Fifteen members were present, and Mrs. Meade was the only guest. P. G. COUNTY CHAPTER, D. A. R. The conversation, led by Mrs. W. K. Cooper, was on the manners and customs of modern Egypt. Fifteen members were present, and Mrs. Margaret A. Baum was resident, Mrs. Mary St. Leckman B. Mrs. Led and Miss Grace Plerce, by Miss Julia A. Karr. The conversation, led by Mrs. W. K. Cooper, was on the manners and customs of modern Egypt. Fifteen members were present, and Mrs. Meade was the only guest.

P. G. COUNTY CHAPTER, D. A. R.
At the last meeting of the national board of management of the D. A. R. a sufficient number of members were admitted to insure the organization of a D. A. R. chapter in Prince Georges county. Miss Emma Eaton Walker of Seat Pleasant, Md., was authorized as organizing regent at the February meeting.

U. D. C.
Robert E. Lee Chapter, No. 644, W.
Memorial Home, 1322 Vermont avenua.
The president, Mrs. Walter E. Hutton, received into the chapter. The most important business was formulating plans for the Dixle ball, which is to be given by the chapter at the Raleigh
Hotel late in April. An article entitled "Pensions for Confederate Soldiers" was read by the chapter historian, Mrs. Wallace Streater.
Refreshments were served.

Seat Pleasant, Md., was authorized as organizing regent at the February meeting.

The new chapter, to be known as the Prince Georges County Chapter, D. A. R., will hold its first organizing meeting within the next few weeks. It will be the first chapter in the county, although the national society, with headquarters in Washington, has been in existence for twenty-five years.

D. C. F. W. C.

The public health committee for the D. C. F. W. C. will hold an open meeting in the auditorium of the Public Library Saturday afternoon at 2 O'clock under the direction of the vice president, Dr. Isabel Haslup Lamb. The program will be in the interest of "Baby week," to be held in this city May 6 to 13, inclusive.

William H. Richardson, chairman of the District of Columbia "clean-up" committee, will tell "What Clean-up" committee, will tell "What Clean-up" objects.

BY GEORGE, I'M GLAD S POSE YOU'RE S' PRISED TO KNOW T' SEE YA! HOW YA BEEN ANYWAY? I'VE I'M MAR-BEEN OUT WEST FOR TH' LAST 3 YEARS! GREAT COUNTRY THAT!

